Electronic Sources

How do I reference Electronic journal articles?

Example of citation within the text – Paraphrasing
Barkham (2013) reports that members of the British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy offered assistance with training from early on and the author was grateful.

Example of citation within the text – Direct quote
Barkham (2013) states “It should also be said that, even in these early stages, BACP members have been incredibly helpful and supportive, particularly in relation to training issues, which is very encouraging and for which I am very grateful.” (pp 18-20)

Example of how the reference for this source should appear:

Electronic journal articles - points to note
The following format should be used when referencing books:
Surname, Initials. (Year) Title of article. Title of journal. Vol no (issue no), pp. page nos

The [accessed date] is included as often links to Web-based resources can change. By giving this information you are stating that the information you are referring to was correct at that time.