Electronic Sources

How do I reference Electronic journal articles?

Example of citation within the text – Paraphrasing
Care planning is a changing process which involves joint decision-making and discussion to reach agreement. The care plan is the system used to set down in writing the end results.

(Hall, 2009)

Example of citation within the text – Direct quote
Hall (2009) writes “in summary, care planning is a dynamic process of negotiation and shared decision-making and the care plan is a means by which the outcomes are recorded.” (pp 36-39)

Example of how the reference for this source should appear:

Electronic journal articles - points to note
The following format should be used when referencing books:
Surname, Initials. (Year) Title of article. Title of journal. Vol no (issue no), pp. page nos

The [accessed date] is included as often links to Web-based resources can change. By giving this information you are stating that the information you are referring to was correct at that time.