Electronic Sources

How do I reference Electronic journal articles?

Example of citation within the text – Paraphrasing
Gould and Maynard (2009) state that to take part in the Olympic Games is the highest level of success for an athlete. The Olympics are even more significant as they only come around once every 4 years.

Example of citation within the text – Direct quote
Gould and Maynard (2009) say “For many athletes, the Olympic Games are the pinnacle of athletic achievement. The importance of the Olympics is further magnified because the opportunity to compete arises once every 4 years.” (pp1393-1408)

Example of how the reference for this source should appear:

Electronic journal articles - points to note
The following format should be used when referencing books:

The [accessed date] is included as often links to Web-based resources can change. By giving this information you are stating that the information you are referring to was correct at that time.